Anyone looking for an integrated solution to his or her health problem, even for a complex one, please feel encouraged to contact Dr. Jonas whom I can highly recommend.

He is an excellent specialist who can confidently blend his Western medical knowledge with the Eastern one for a patient-centred diagnosis to choose the right treatment. His treatment was effective for me, discussed in plain English and adjusted according to the current situation over time.

I live far away from him but he remained approachable on the phone and social media all the time. My questions were answered quickly in an easy-to-understand and reassuring manner. His explanations are of such a high standard which is worth for other physicians from both Eastern and Western schools to follow. I'm glad that I found him and can highly recommend him to everyone should their health problems need a fresh and integrated approach.
Thank you Dr. Jonas.

Dr Attila Jonas helped me when I was seriously ill and it seemed to be hopeless to get any efficient help. As I recommended him to many others with various serious illnesses he treated them successfully. Also Dr. Jonas helped one of my friend's recovery after a stomach cancer surgery in a way that left the check up doctor speechless. Therefore I highly recommend his services.

Dr Attila Jonas is highly professional, and knowledgeable in many areas. What makes him stand out is how much care and attention he gives! From the first consultation I felt like I'm talking to someone who really cares about me, helping me to relax and talk about my issues comfortably and then using his wide range of knowledge to give me the best advice. Truly recommend!

From my experience I would highly recommend these natural, herbal remedies.its not a magic solution they need some time to start working but when they do you won't be coming back to your GP for medication. Attila is a wonderful doctor who puts his heart and soul into every patient and provides a high standard of personalised service at every step of the way. I wouldn't hesitate to recommend health solutions to my family and friends 10/10.

Attila is incredible. Not only has he taken great care of my ongoing health problems, but also he helped my daughter in a way that left me speechless. It is always lovely to speak to him. It's rare to find a doctor that combines such personal touches and care for a patient as a person with an outstanding quality of medical care. I highly recommend his services.

Attila is a very competent and precise specialist who understands the connections between Western and Chinese medicine.

He did not spare his time and energy helping me with my condition. He answered all of my questions with a high professional awareness in a very competent level. Subsequently not only did I manage to put all his reasoning into my already existing Western medical knowledge (as I am his fellow anaesthetic colleague) but his sound explanations along with my clinical improvement made me so enthusiastic that I started to study integrated Chinese medicine with his support. I can highly recommend him!

Attila has a huge knowledge about alternative medicine and healing. We were lucky enough to meet him through a friend of us during a current bad period of my wife when she is down both mentally and physically. Attila is tirelessly visiting us to supply her with his personalized medicines and massaging through her meridians. There is already a rapid improvement in her general condition.

Attila has been the only one who has managed to solve and heal my long-term problem connected with thyroid, menopause, etc, but nobody had been successful before to know where and how to map the source of my issue. Thanks to Attila's professionalism, experience and in-depth knowledge on the wide range of healing methods, he managed to find out what it was and how to heal it and was able put my body back in balance. I will always be grateful for him taking the time to go deeper in the problem. I can absolutely recommend him.

I was lucky enough to meet Attila after my cancer surgery and he helped me a lot with his Chinese tablets. He asked me about my symptoms and examined me properly and I have got my bespoke medicine very quickly via post. I started chemotherapy together with his tablets. I was afraid of the side effects of chemotherapy - understandably - such as lack of immunity, anaemia, hair loss and delayed recovery after my operation. Attila designed my herbal tablets to ameliorate these side effects and we managed to achieve this goal so effectively that not only did I feel much better in my everyday life but the repeat blood tests on my follow-up examination showed significantly improved Hb - greatly surprising both myself and my oncologist!

While I was taking his medicine he kept regularly checking on me and when I had a new symptom in my condition he changed the component of the medication that suited me better. I think I could not recommend him any better.

His knowledge and understanding about Chinese herbal medicine together with his Western medical background definitely supported my health in the hardest times I have ever survived and helped me fighting for my life out of cancer with his great complementary treatment. Thank you so much!
